The processing of your personal data is based on the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and the German Federal Data Protection Act (BDSG). Insofar as you have given us your consent to process personal data for specific purposes, Art. 6 para. 1 a GDPR serves as the legal basis for the processing of personal data. Any consent given can be revoked by you at any time. The processing of personal data in the context of the performance of contracts to which you are a party or for the implementation of pre-contractual measures, which are carried out at your request, is based on Art. 6 para. 1 lit. b GDPR. The purpose of data processing depends on the respective services agreed on in the contract. If processing of personal data is necessary to comply with a legal obligation to which our company is subject, Art. 6 para. 1 lit. c GDPR serves as the legal basis. If processing is necessary to protect one of our legitimate interest or the legitimate interest of a third party and if the interests, fundamental rights and freedoms of the data subject do not override the first-mentioned interest, Art. 6 para. 1 lit. f GDPR serves as the legal basis for the processing.

Legitimate interests in case of balancing of interests (Art. 13 para. 1 lit. d GDPR)

Depending on the situation, the following interests may be affected:

Such parties receive can access your personal data only insofar as this is required within the framework of the „least privilege“ principle (allocation of user rights to the smallest possible extent) and the „need-to-know“ principle (knowledge of data only when necessary). These are, in particular, regulations found in the German Commercial Code or the German Fiscal Code, which mandate the storage of data relevant under tax law and of receipts for a period of six or ten years. When the data is no longer required or if a storage period prescribed by the aforementioned standards has expired, your data will be deleted on a regular basis.
